S. Ramasundar

Name of Alumnus

Now that I am at NLU, Delhi, I see a huge difference as to how a Law course to be run. I am a retired person and have no malafide intentions.

Dear University admin, [I have written this note in true spirit]

I am Satyamurti Ramasundar, a 73 year old LLB(4) Student at Sushant University. (2020-23 batch). I happen to be a Chartered Accountant, MBA from IIMA with 40+ years experience in Unilever, Pepsico, Electrolux and Ranbaxy at CEO/CFO levels.

In the interest of learning a new subject, I joined Sushant University School of Law. I was utterly disappointed to see the poor academic infrastructure, less than acceptable quality of faculty (of course with some exceptions) and indifferent attitude of most of teaching staff. I felt like taking over the administration and running it

FEEDBACK ANALYSIS REPORT

2015-2016: BA LLB(H)

- The feedback received from the students was above average. The students seemed to be satisfied with the course scheme in the school.
- The feedback in general from the teachers and employers in general was that the school is gradually improving, and periodical review should be done.
- There was a specific suggestion also with respect to removal of Foreign language as well as it has no relevance for the law students.

2016-2017: BA LLB(H)

- The feedback received from the students was satisfactory.
- The feedback received from industry experts was also satisfactory and one of the major things pointed out by them was that Advocacy skills is not required as a separate subject as we already have mooting exercise and internship. This, subject teaches advocacy skills to the students.
- There was also a suggestion of some of them to start BBA LLB(H) program as well.

2017-2018: BA/BBA LLB(H)

- There was a demand from the students that they need specialized courses as are being taught in other colleges in Delhi NCR.
- This demand of the students was also the same from the side of the experts as well. Even the industry experts and teachers were of the view that students need to study diversified subjects.

2018-2019: BA/BBA LLB(H)

- The students as well as the industry experts had the same opinion that certain upcoming field of law can also be included in the course curriculum.
- Suggestions with respect to contemporary issues of law like clean energy and sustainability, international commercial arbitration, etc should be taught to the students.
- There was also a suggestion made by some advocates to introduce 3-year LLB(H) as a program.

2019-2020: BA/BBA LLB(H)

- The suggestion with respect to introduction of 3-year LLB(H) was reiterated.
- The teachers as well as the industry experts seemed satisfied with course curriculum.

Year	Stakeholder	Structured Feedback Received	Actions Taken
2020-2021	Students	• Some new subjects should be available to us in our electives option	• The electives basket has been reviewed and some subjects have been removed and some have been added
	Teachers	• As per the BCI recommendations, Defence Strategies and Arbitration, Mediation and Conciliation has to be introduced • The syllabus of your subject Legal Methods can also be edited	• Defence Strategies has been introduced as per the BCI recommendation • We already had a subject by the name Alternate Dispute Resolution so the nomenclature of the subject was changed to Arbitration, Mediation and Conciliation again as per BCI recommendation
	Employers	• Nomenclatures and syllabus of some subjects in LLM need to be changed • The syllabus also needs a bit of revision to suit the contemporary times	• The nomenclature of most of the LLM subjects have been changed • The syllabus of UG subjects as well as LLM subjects has also been re-evaluated
	Alumni	• The syllabus of some of the LLM subjects like Banking laws, Real Estate law, Land Acquisition laws in order to incorporate the changes introduced in these laws	• As mentioned above, the syllabus of LLM subjects has been revised

Constructive Suggestions if any for the improvement: GREAT INSTITUTION : This is what I like:

(1) The program is being run most diligently & efficiently
(2) The teachers are fully sensitive to the needs of even those students who may not be so fast in grasping things
(3) I give 100%, marks & Thumbs Up to the college
