EVENT REPORT:

In the pursuit of gaining deeper insights into the Medical Laboratory Technology and the remarkable strides made in healthcare, a group of aspiring healthcare professionals embarked on a Lab visit to “Cloudnine Hospital”.The purpose of this visit was to gain insight into the functioning of the department, observe the various laboratory techniques and equipment, and understand the role of Medical Laboratory Technologists (MLTs) in healthcare.

In each section, students had the opportunity to observe laboratory technicians and technologists performing various tests and procedures. They learned about the use of different equipment such as microscopes, centrifuges, spectrophotometers, and automated analyzers. Additionally, students were briefed on the importance of quality control measures and adherence to standard operating procedures to ensure accurate and reliable test results.

The visit included demonstrations of common laboratory tests such as complete blood count (CBC), urinalysis, blood glucose, lipid profile, and microbial culture. Students had the chance to observe sample processing, preparation, analysis, and interpretation of results under the guidance of experienced laboratory staff. The session was highly interactive, allowing students to pose questions and seek clarifications on various aspects. The Students were very happy on such an enlightening experience.

EVENTS PICTURES

The image is a promotional poster for an industrial visit. At the top left is the Sushant University logo. At the top right, it identifies the School of Health Sciences and the Department of MLT. The central text reads 'Organizes INDUSTRIAL Visit for Department of MLT', with 'INDUSTRIAL' in large red letters and 'Visit' in a handwritten script. Below this is the Cloudnine Hospital logo and the date '15 February, 2024'. The bottom half of the poster features a photograph of the Cloudnine Hospital building, which has a large glass facade and a sign that says 'cloudnine'. A banner in the foreground of the photo shows a smiling woman holding a child.
