"A dream does not become reality through magic; it takes sweat, determination, and hard work"

- Colin Powell

I am glad and honoured to produce Volume 5 of "Leglytical – Treasure of School of Law," a quarterly e-newsletter publication entirely of School of Law, Sushant University. The School of Law at Sushant University has always endeavoured to attain distinction in its enactments and its execution. The team of Leglytical has been doing a praiseworthy task in creating and capturing the outstanding flashes of School of Law. The Faculty Editor Dr.Sulakshana Banerjee Assistant Professor of Law with two student editors namely, Ridhi Sharma and Himanshi Raghav have been continuously engaged in shaping the "Leglytical" efficaciously. Their iron determination and hard work are undoubtedly noteworthy. I wish good luck to the entire team and I am confident that in the coming days the team will initiate more such treasures for the School of Law, Sushant University.

“Sometimes you wake up; sometimes the fall kills you; and sometimes, when you fall, you fly.”

— Neil Gaiman

My TEAM has come a long way while we celebrate the successful completion of one year of “LEGLYTICAL: The Treasure of School of Law”. It's not just one year but it is the reflection of the hard work, dedication and commitment of the students and the faculty in raising their bar of professionalism in leaps and bounds. I heartily congratulate the editorial team of the quarterly newsletter in achieving this milestone of compiling the inputs and processing the same into outputs of the school.

It is not easy to focus on all the dimensions of the growth trajectory of the life of a student but schemes like mentoring by faculty and industry professionals, enthralling the curriculum with practical orientation and exposure, developing the soft skills through training sessions, integrating the suggestions recommended by the members of Advisory Council, enhancing the critical thinking ability of the students to make them 21st century global citizens have helped us carve a niche in the area of legal education. I strongly appreciate the approach of the faculty in evolving the research competence of the students by involving them in research projects and assignments that lays the foundation of a strong legal career. The Guru-Shishya relationship at School of Law has been implemented in the right spirit and goes across years in building trust and knowledge for generations to come.

I wish Team Leglytical all the very best for their future endeavours and a very HAPPY NEW YEAR 2022!

Inside Leglytical

"Teaching is a calling too. And I have always thought that teachers in their way are holy-Angels leading their flocks out of the darkness."

-Jeannettee Walls

I am honoured and privileged to introduce Vol-5 of Leglytical – Treasure of School of Law, a quarterly e-newsletter which outlines the bundles of inventiveness and initiatives of the School of Law, Sushant University. School of Law, Sushant University always aims at exploring new findings and researches hence, our students along with the support of their erudite Professors are very much accustomed with the concept of innovativeness that is to think ‘out of the box’ and to create something original. From post to pillar in quest of new hunt ample toil are done. Through “Leglytical” me and my student editors capture all gracious and golden events happening in the School of Law and thereby create a reminiscence of all significant moments. “Leglytical” generates a source of motivation and enables everyone to showcase their talent and ingenuity. It provides an open platform and brings contentment and elation upon its successful publication. We, the team, believe in enhancement and progression and consider that “Leglytical” is an asset which gives a space to flourish and not to pause.

Student's Achievement

Amit Sachdeva student of LLB 1ST year has started an initiative called 'Project Compassion' in Indian jails.

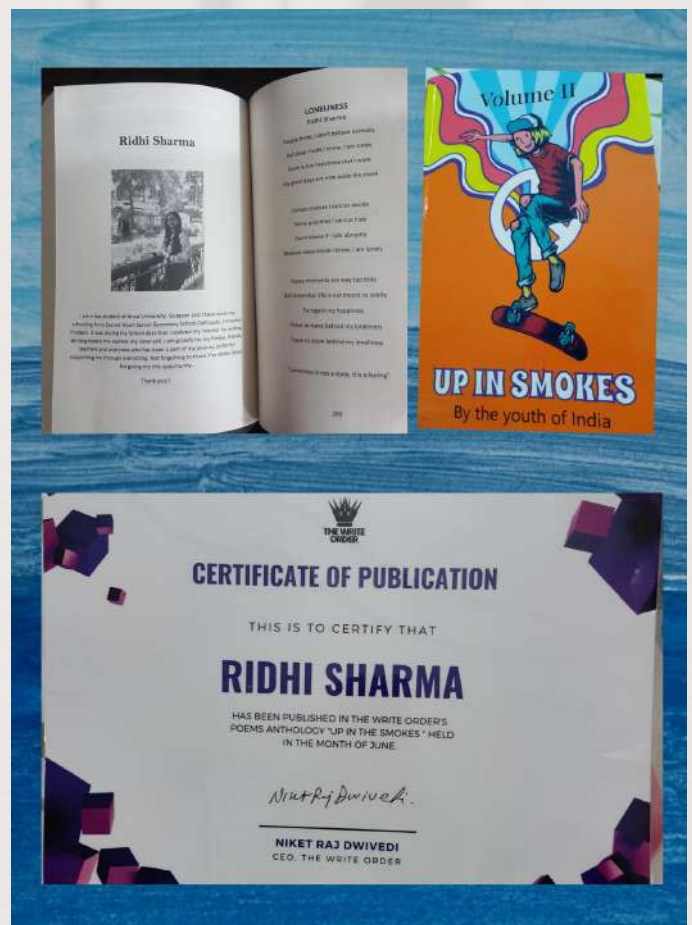

There are approximately 1350 jails in India and around 475000 inmates are there. We do not call them jail now, we call them 'Reform centre'. He has started 'Project Compassion', where he is conducting motivational talks for inmates specially from 18 to 21 years of age, most of them are first timers and feel so alone and at the same time those guys are so vulnerable and have to be safeguarded before they become hardened.

His talks revolve around teachings of Mahatma Gandhi such as 'Non-violence, Love, Selfless Service, Compassion and Humanity so that their way of thinking can change and they inculcate these qualities to make them a better person. He conducted his first talk in Bhondsi Prison in Gurugram with the help of Dr. Kiran Bedi, where he interacted with 150 inmates and spoke about how above mentioned virtues can change their lives and of others around them. It was a great interaction and all of them were so happy and felt motivated. He told them the owner of hugs and love and while his way out, one of the inmate came and hugged him, some of them even cried.

Mystery of Life

Life has a deep unpredictable history
That is life is full of mystery
It is too long to count on faults
And too short to cherish on its thoughts
From an initial breath to last we flourish
exceptionally fast
Forever stuck between superstition and Science
Not knowing which ever to flaunt defiance
It is the event that remains personally unsettled
Arouses curiosity as to how life is assembled
It does not transfer in mind by education
But by truth that is unknowable accept by divine revelation
