PROF. (DR.) JAGBIR SINGH DAHIYA

I am extremely delighted to present Volume-11 of our School of Law Quarterly e-newsletter Leglytical. We have successfully completed another academic year with lots of enchanting activities and events and have created a series of memoirs in the School of Law gallery. The School of Law at Sushant University has always striven to attain distinction in its depictions and its implementation. As rightly stated by Alfred Mercier –“What we learn with pleasure we never forget”. And I firmly believe that our students and faculty members together with their efforts and dedication made the journey smooth and impeccable. Other than the chain of events and activities in this volume our e-newsletter has covered the addition of eminent Advisory Council Members, Student and Faculty achievements, Farewell party, Club activities and so on.

For this successful publication of Volume-11, I heartily congratulate Dr.Sulakshana Banerjee, Assistant Professor of Law, the inventor and creator of this e-newsletter Leglytical and her student editors for such hard toil and continuous effort in creating and shaping Leglytical -the very treasure of the School of Law. My blessings to them for their artistry and exclusive creativity.

I wish the team will do more such commendable jobs in the distant future and will create an instance for its distinguished features and incredible strategies.

With Best Wishes
