1. Course Introduction and Objectives

Moot Court forms an essential part of the Law School curriculum. It gives an added advantage and a platform to the students to argue as a lawyer. This exercise is important for the students to familiarize the students with the working of actual court. The students learn how to file a brief and give guidance and practical training about the court practices and etiquettes

2. Learning Outcomes

- a) To train the students to find the legal problems, research methods, framing of arguments
- b) Inculcate confidence in the students
- c) Preparing the students for legal research and techniques
- d) To help students become successful lawyers
- Problems Encountered: Appropriate content selection as per students was 3.

1. Course Introduction and Objective

The course "Seven Habits of Highly Effective People" is designed to explore and cultivate habits that empower individuals to thrive in various aspects of life. Drawing inspiration from Stephen Covey's seminal work, this course aims to equip participants with practical strategies and insights to enhance their personal effectiveness. Participants will delve into habits such as proactivity, beginning with the end in mind, collaboration, effective communication, and self-belief. Through interactive sessions and reflective exercises, participants will embark on a transformative journey to unleash their potential and lead fulfilling lives.

Course Objectives:

- 1. Become proactive in their personal and professional life.
- 2. Understand the importance of thinking about the end result before starting any task.
