This is to certify that Mr. Nishit Chadha interned at our office from June 03, 2019 to November 29, 2019 as part of the B.Arch course requirement.

During this time, he was involved in preparing the following drawings for few of our residential, institutional and corporate projects:

- Working drawings and details as shown in his portfolio
- Presentation drawings

To get a wider understanding of the building process, he was exposed to the following:

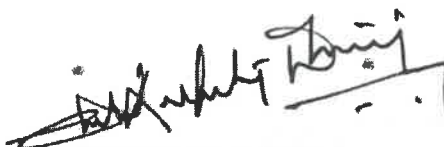

- Vendor presentations
- Developing Sketch-up models

Nishit is a bright student with good potential. He needs to be through regarding his approach to work. Although he was quite earnest, he could have been more responsible in making the most out of his tenure at office.

Anshul Sharma, student of Sushant School of Design, Ansal University, Gurgaon interned with Aakar Advertising & Pvt. Ltd for a period of 7 months. He was very punctual and showed keen interest in learning new things.

As he was interning under design team, on the first day of his internship itself he was given an assignment to design some pages for a client.
