“Research is formalized curiosity. It is poking and prying with a purpose”-Zora Neale Hurston On March 2, 2020, the School of Law, Ansal University organized a workshop on “The Art of Writing A Research Paper” which focused on to learning how to do legal research. Mr. Abraham Joseph was the guest speaker for the event. Mr. Joseph is currently working as a legal officer at Asian-African Legal Consultative Organization (AALCO). The workshop was opened to all the students of School of law and almost 45 were in attendance. During the workshop, the attendees shared their opinions, thoughts and problems regarding the legal writing. The workshop was divided in three aspects of legal writing and each part was thoroughly explained by Mr. Joseph. First Part was all about misconceptions about legal writing. Why do people don't write so often and what the golden rules of writing. In the Second part, the Five Stages of writing was explained. It covered the whole writing process of a research paper and how much time does each stage should be given. Lastly, we discussed what the meaning of legal research is, what the types of legal research are and how the objectives should and methodology should be written down.

	The last point of discussion was Bluebook citation and how often it's not used correctly. During the workshop, the attendees shared the kind of problems they face during writing about any kind of legal topics. It was great to hear about the common pitfalls every researcher face and know that students are not only the one to face these kinds of problems. The workshop helped every student to feel much more confident in avoiding errors in any future project and made us a better legal researcher.
14. Outcome*	The workshop on "The Art of Writing a Research Paper" held by the School of Law, Ansal University on March 2, 2020, proved to be a highly enriching experience for attendees. Led by Mr. Abraham Joseph, a legal officer at the Asian-African Legal Consultative Organization (AALCO), the session aimed to sharpen students' legal writing skills. The workshop covered key aspects of legal research, from dispelling misconceptions to understanding the writing process in five stages, and the nuances of Bluebook citation. Students found the session particularly helpful in identifying and addressing common challenges in legal writing. The practical insights shared boosted their confidence, preparing them to write more effectively and accurately in future research projects. Overall, the workshop enhanced their understanding of legal research methodology and improved their legal writing skills.

- Developing implementation strategies

8. Concluding Remarks and Way Forward (4:45 PM - 5:00 PM)

Key Discussions and Insights

1. Multidisciplinary Approach

- Emphasis on breaking silos between disciplines
- Strategies for creating flexible degree programs
- Challenges in implementing choice-based credit systems

2. Research and Innovation

- Importance of promoting research at undergraduate level
- Establishing industry-academia linkages
- Creating interdisciplinary research clusters

3. Internationalization

- Opportunities for international collaborations
- Strategies for attracting foreign students
- Challenges in curriculum equivalence and credit transfer

4. Skill Development and Employability

- Integrating vocational education into mainstream courses
- Importance of internships and practical training
- Developing entrepreneurship skills among students

5. Assessment Reforms

- Moving towards continuous and comprehensive evaluation
- Reducing emphasis on year-end examinations

- Implementing competency-based assessment

6. Digital Learning

- Leveraging MOOCs and online resources
- Developing in-house digital content
- Ensuring digital equity among students

Outcomes

1. Increased awareness among faculty about NEP 2020 objectives and guidelines
2. Identification of key areas requiring curriculum revision
3. Generation of ideas for interdisciplinary programs
4. Draft action plans for NEP implementation at department level
5. Formation of NEP Implementation Task Force

Challenges Identified

1. Resistance to change among some faculty members
2. Resource constraints for implementing all NEP recommendations
3. Need for extensive faculty training in new pedagogical approaches
4. Balancing traditional strengths with new policy directives

Recommendations

1. Curriculum Overhaul: Initiate a comprehensive curriculum review process to align with NEP guidelines
2. Faculty Development: Organize regular workshops on new teaching methodologies and technology integration
3. Infrastructure Upgrade: Invest in digital infrastructure to support blended learning
4. Research Promotion: Establish seed funding for interdisciplinary research projects
5. Industry Partnerships: Strengthen ties with industry for internships and collaborative research
6. International Collaborations: Pursue MoUs with foreign universities for student and faculty exchange
7. Continuous Monitoring: Set up a committee to oversee and evaluate NEP implementation progress

Conclusion

The faculty orientation program on NEP 2020 at Sushant University was a crucial first step in preparing the institution for the sweeping changes proposed in the new education policy. The event successfully raised awareness about the key aspects of NEP and initiated important discussions on its implementation.

The active participation of faculty members in discussions and workshops demonstrated their commitment to embracing the changes and innovating in their teaching and research practices. The challenges identified provide a roadmap for areas requiring focused attention and resource allocation.

Moving forward, it is essential for Sushant University to maintain the momentum generated by this orientation. Regular follow-up sessions, continuous faculty development programs, and a phased implementation approach will be key to successfully aligning the university with the visionary objectives of NEP 2020.

The recommendations provided offer a structured approach to NEP implementation, ensuring that Sushant University not only complies with the new policy but also emerges as a leader in innovative and holistic education in India.

Brief Description (min 250 to max 800 words)*	School of Health Sciences has organized a 5 days Faculty Development Program on Blended Learning and its tools for effective teaching which

	was scheduled between 25th July 2002 to 29th July, 2022. The sessions of FDP focused on the use and importance of Blended learning in education system. In most cases blended learning is the incorporation of digital learning in traditional classroom settings. After the COVID-19 pandemic there is boom in blended learning approaches and so we as an educator adapt and implement new ICT technologies. It is imperative to learn and use modern tools and techniques in the education system to enhance understanding and to deal with uncertainties. The first day of FDP commence with the inaugural speech of Honorable Vice- Chancellor Prof. Rakesh Ranjan who talk about the relevance and need of Faculty Development Programme and blended learning to enhance the overall skills of educators. The first session of FDP taken by Dr. Rahul Sharma, Director, SHS on Paradigm shift in Healthcare Industry after COVID pandemic. It was an informative session on Healthcare Industry. The next on the same day was taken by Dr. Sudipto Sarkar, Dean, SET on Learning and Teaching methods and new techniques in blended learning. The second half of the day was started with the information on "Digital world- Roles and responsibilities of teachers ICT enabled teaching & learning" by Dr. Alpana Jija, Assistant Professor, SET followed by the session of Mr. Tinu Yadav, Assistant Professor, SHS on Tools for Virtual classes Assessment procedures - Hands on practice. Both the sessions were beneficial to develop the skills of the faculty members.
Outcome* 	The last day of FDP started with the topic on Flipped learning and bloom's taxonomy by Dr. Sachin Datt, Assistant Professor , SOD. The second half of the day started with the session of Ms.Nupur Agarwal, Assistant Professor, SHS on Emotional Intelligence which educate participants on the importance of emotional Intelligence in professional as well as personal life along with assessment of emotional Intelligence. The last session of FDP was taken by Ms. Richa Dwivedi, Assistant Professor, SHS on Distress to de-stress which focused on methods to deal with stress in professional and personal life along with assessment of stress with help of stress scale.

	Overall this FDP proved to be beneficial for the participants in every aspect.

SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

ABOUT SUSHANT UNIVERSITY

Sushant University, an embodiment of the diffusion of ancient and modern learnings with a contemporary international approach, presents itself as one of the most progressive universities of modern times, with the slogan – Ahead, for life. Merit-based scholarships, additional, allied certifications, multi-disciplinary learning, study of soft skills, student mentoring and international collaborations are but a few features of the deep-rooted, well deliberated and a calculated approach towards the overall development of students, leading eventually towards moulding them into responsible citizens of India.

Harnessing the limitless energy, enthusiasm and passion of students and duly appreciating their interest in order to help them achieve their goals in life has always been the earnest endeavour of the University. Giving the students their due space and liberty of expression by the creation of a student body and keeping a close touch with alumni are all key activities of the Sushant University's lifelong learning systems designed to put India at the peak of learning and the dissemination of education of the highest order.

About School of Business

Sushant University's School of Business (SOB), offers under-graduate, post-graduate and doctorate programmes. SOB has been at the epicentre of transformational capabilities, where the foundation is laid for combining traditional and modern with dynamic global understanding of learning. It has come a long way in redefining the typical and archaic pedagogies and methodologies of teaching and shaped them into more pragmatic and non-conservative approaches for corporate leaders of tomorrow. With the roots of the School firmly entrenched in the traditional Indian values, it embraces New Age technologies to deliver education in an engaging manner. This helps budding business managers to imbibe theoretical concepts through practical applications in real life corporate scenarios. SOB's triumph in providing high quality experiential learning to the students has been recognised from time to time with several awards and accolades like the 'Best Business School Campus for Academic Excellence in India'.

About the FDP

Creativity is the novel step of being the first to identify that something might be possible in the first place. But innovation is the action of putting things into practical reality, despite challenges and resistance, rather than just contemplating. Both are necessary in business, but only one of them translates to real revenue and profits. SoB, Sushant university is organising a 5-day FDP on Creativity and Innovation in Business with an aim to encourage the people to think outside of the box and giving them time and resources to explore new areas for innovative ideas is the key to cost-effective business solutions.

The purpose of this FDP is to provide an opportunity for distinguished Experts to engage with the and share their experiences and perspectives relating creativity and innovation training which will provide guidelines for managing business, and creating an ecosystem for Innovation & Entrepreneurship.

Participants

We invite Faculty Members, Researchers, and other Professionals from all Universities/Institutes/ Departments/ Schools/ Colleges to participate in this Faculty Development Programme.

Certificate of Participation

On the successful completion of the FDP, each participant shall receive an online Certificate of Participation.

Dear All

There is no going back to "before the pandemic" as students and teachers return to the campus . The education ecosystem is in the midst of a major paradigm shift in the way education is delivered .

Higher education instructors and leaders must integrate learnings with new changes in terms of student engagement and remote accessibility and incorporate them into the development of their course design, planning and delivery.

It is in this context that the School of Business is happy to announce a 5 day Faculty Development Programme in collaboration with Vatel School , SU and Maharishi Mahesh Yogi Vedic Vishvidhyalaya on "Rethinking Teaching Pedagogy in Commerce and Management" from 3 - 7 July 2023 .

Come join to unlearn, learn and relearn . PFA the brochure for the same .

The International Faculty Development Program (IFDP) titled "Rethinking Teaching Pedagogy in Commerce and Management" was conducted from July 3 to July 7, 2023, aimed at enhancing teaching methods and exploring new pedagogical trends in commerce and management education.

The inaugural session on July 3, 2023, began with a traditional Saraswati Vandana, followed by a welcome address by Dr. Richa N. Agarwal, the convener. Esteemed speakers like the Vice Chancellor of Sushant University, Prof. Rakesh Ranjan, and the Associate Dean of the School of Business, Prof. Vijay Anand Dubey, shared opening remarks. Each day of the program featured sessions moderated by a dedicated faculty member, ensuring an organized flow of activities and discussions.

Day 1, moderated by Dr. Richa N. Agarwal, commenced with Dr. William M. Hickey from Guangdong University discussing "Change in Trends in Teaching Pedagogy Post-Pandemic," reflecting on shifts towards digital and hybrid teaching models that have redefined educational practices. Following a lunch break, Dr. Suyash Bharadwaj from Gurukul Kangri Vishwavidyalaya presented a session on "Use of ICT Tools," highlighting technology's role in enhancing the interactive aspects of teaching. The day ended with a feedback session, gathering insights on the day's presentations.

On Day 2, moderated by Ms. Chakshu Mehta, the focus was on case study methodologies. Dr. Govind N. Srivastava from Jaipuria Institute of Management introduced "Understanding Case Study Teaching Pedagogy," emphasizing real-world applications in academic settings. In the afternoon, Ms. Sarvjaeta Verma, a NACRA reviewer and case author, expanded on "Case Study as an Effective Teaching Tool," sharing her expertise in using

	case studies to promote critical thinking. A feedback session allowed participants to discuss and reflect on the effectiveness of case-based learning. Day 3, under the moderation of Ms. Aanchal Dangwal, focused on aligning academic delivery with industry expectations. Mr. Anand Dhutraj from NL Dalmia Institute of Management Studies discussed the “Balancing Corporate Expectations and Academic Delivery.” Following this, Dr. Mukesh Kumar from Marwadi University led a session on the “Critical Role of Research in Teaching,” discussing the integration of research and teaching for a well-rounded academic experience. Feedback was collected at the end of the day to capture participant perspectives. Moderated by Ms. Chandana Paul, Day 4 explored ethics in teaching. Dr. Rajneesh Kler from Amity University, Tashkent, led a session on “The Trinity between Ethical Pedagogy, Outcomes, and Assessment in a Multicultural Management Education Setting,” highlighting the importance of ethics in diverse learning environments. This was followed by a session by Dr. Dhani Ram Agarwal on the “Role of Ethics and Indian Ethos in Teaching,” which discussed the relevance of cultural values in pedagogy. A feedback session concluded the day. The final day, moderated by Ms. Farhana Mariyam, centered on student engagement. Dr. Bharti Sharma from the International School of Informatics & Management discussed strategies for “Student Engagement and Assessment” in the morning session. In the afternoon, Dr. Prashant Pareek from Shanti Business School expanded on similar themes, further detailing assessment techniques. The day concluded with a valedictory address by Dr. Saurav Chhabra, followed by a vote of thanks from Dr. Richa N. Agarwal, and a final feedback session. This IFDP provided valuable insights into innovative pedagogies, ethical considerations, and the integration of technology in teaching, emphasizing the importance of adapting to evolving educational demands.

This five-day event aimed to equip faculty members with the skills and knowledge necessary to enhance their research writing capabilities, ultimately improving the quality of academic publications. The program saw active participation from faculty members across various departments, totaling 5 to 6 attendees. The diverse representation contributed to enriching discussions and varied perspectives on research methodologies and writing techniques. The "Insight to Write a Good Research Paper" Faculty Development Program was a significant success, fostering a renewed commitment to research excellence among faculty members. The knowledge and skills gained during the program are expected to translate into higher-quality publications and a stronger research culture within the institution.

14. Outcome*	The FDP successfully achieved its objectives, leading to several positive outcomes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Increased confidence among faculty members in writing and submitting research papers. • Development of a network of researchers within the institution, encouraging collaboration on future projects. • Enhanced understanding of the publication process, with participants expressing eagerness to apply learned strategies in their upcoming research endeavors.

Dear All,

Greetings!

We are excited to extend a warm invitation to you for our upcoming Faculty Development Program (FDP) on Entrepreneurship at the School of Business.

Event Details:

Title: Navigating the Entrepreneurial LandscapeDate: 2nd Jan-8th Jan, 2024

Time: 10:00 AM – 5:00 PM

Agenda:

- Introduction to Entrepreneurship: Understanding the fundamentals of entrepreneurship and its significance in the business landscape.
- Innovative Teaching Methodologies: Exploring effective ways to teach entrepreneurship concepts and cultivate an entrepreneurial mindset among students.
- Case Studies and Best Practices: Analyzing successful entrepreneurship case studies and sharing best practices in teaching entrepreneurship.

Registration:

To confirm your attendance, please RSVP by 31st Dec, 2023 by: <https://forms.gle/ZJut7aPBvWGY83Xv5>

This FDP aims to empower educators with the knowledge and skills needed to inspire the next generation of entrepreneurs. We believe that by enhancing our faculty's expertise in entrepreneurship, we can create a more dynamic and innovative learning environment.

We look forward to your participation and collaboration in making this FDP a valuable and enriching experience for all attendees. Should you have any questions or require further information, please do not hesitate to contact the organising committee.

Thank you for your time and consideration. We anticipate an insightful and productive session.

FDP on Management-2 - 8 Jan, 24

The Faculty Development Program (FDP) was a dynamic and enriching experience featuring diverse sessions. Ms. Aanchal Dangwal set the tone with an engaging introduction, paving the way for Dr. J.N. Giri's exploration of the 'Entrepreneurial Landscape in the Age of AI.' Dr. Astha Mehta continued the momentum with an insightful session on 'Understanding Contracts for New Entrepreneurs.' Day 2 began with a warm welcome, followed by Dr. Geetu Singhal's profound insights on 'Cordial Atmosphere for Women at Workplace.' Dr. Nidhi Chowdhry delved into 'Green Entrepreneurship and Government Initiatives' post-lunch. Day 3 featured Dr. Atul Agarwal decoding the 'Satyam Scam' and Dr. Suman Dahiya addressing 'Challenges for New-Age Entrepreneurs.' Neha Mishra provided valuable insights into 'Women Entrepreneurship.' The FDP encapsulated a diverse range of topics, fostering knowledge, interaction, and empowerment. Day 4 commenced with Ms. Aanchal Dangwal offering a unique perspective on 'Entrepreneurship, Technology, and the Future.' She delved into the transformative potential of immersive technologies, such as virtual, augmented, and mixed reality, providing insights into what the future holds for entrepreneurs. The session proved enlightening as attendees explored the intersection of entrepreneurship and cutting-edge technologies. The day concluded with a brilliant presentation by Shalini Kapoor, a Tedx speaker and the founder and President of Yatan NGO, known for her contributions to Simply Green—a brand promoting eco-friendly products. The FDP wrapped up in a mode of continuous learning, leaving participants enriched and inspired.

Expert talk at School of Design Faculty FDP

Description (min 250 to max 800 words)*

The School of Design at Sushant University successfully conducted a comprehensive Research Orientation program for faculty development from January 14th to 20th, 2024. This week-long event aimed to enhance research capabilities, foster a culture of inquiry within the design community, and align the faculty's research skills with contemporary design practices and methodologies.

Event Details

- Duration: 7 days (January 14-20, 2024)
- Venue: School of Design, Sushant University Campus
- Participants: 13 faculty members
- Format: Hybrid (in-person and virtual sessions)

Objectives

1. Enhance faculty understanding of design research methodologies
2. Promote interdisciplinary research in design
3. Develop skills in research proposal writing and academic publishing
4. Explore emerging areas in design research
5. Foster collaborations among faculty members
6. Align research practices with industry needs and global trends

Program Structure

Day 1: Introduction to Design Research

- Opening ceremony and welcome address
- Keynote: "The Evolving Landscape of Design Research"
- Workshop: "Identifying Research Gaps in Design"

Day 2: Research Methodologies

- Lecture: "Qualitative Research Methods in Design"
- Workshop: "Quantitative Approaches to Design Research"
- Panel Discussion: "Mixing Methods in Design Research"

Day 3: Practice-Based Research

- Seminar: "Integrating Practice-based Research in Design Curricula"
- Hands-on Session: "Documenting Design Processes for Research"
- Case Study Presentations by Faculty

Day 4: Emerging Areas in Design Research

- Lecture: "AI and Machine Learning in Design Research"
- Workshop: "Sustainable Design Practices: Research Approaches"
- Panel: "Cross-Cultural Design Studies: Methodologies and Challenges"

Day 5: Research Ethics and Publication

- Seminar: "Ethical Considerations in Design Research"
- Workshop: "Writing Effective Research Proposals"
- Lecture: "Navigating the Academic Publishing Landscape in Design"

Day 6: Interdisciplinary Collaborations

- Roundtable: "Fostering Interdisciplinary Research in Design"
- Group Activity: Formation of Research Clusters
- Mentorship Session: Pairing Junior and Senior Researchers

Day 7: Research Showcase and Conclusion

- Faculty Research Proposal Presentations
- Feedback Session and Future Planning
- Closing Ceremony and Certificate Distribution

Key Discussions and Insights

1. Digital Transformation in Design Research: The importance of integrating digital tools and methodologies in design research was emphasized, with discussions on virtual ethnography, data visualization, and AI-assisted design analysis.
2. Sustainability and Social Impact: A recurring theme was the role of design research in addressing global challenges, particularly in areas of sustainability, inclusive design, and social innovation.
3. Industry-Academia Collaboration: The need for stronger ties between academic research and industry practices was highlighted, with strategies discussed for more effective knowledge transfer and collaborative projects.
4. Interdisciplinary Approaches: The value of cross-disciplinary research was a key focus, with faculty exploring ways to integrate insights from fields such as psychology, anthropology, and computer science into design research.
5. Research Ethics: Discussions on ethical considerations in design research, particularly when working with communities or utilizing AI and big data, were deemed crucial for responsible research practices.
6. Publication Strategies: Faculty members gained insights into effective academic writing, targeting appropriate journals, and navigating the peer-review process in the design field.

Outcomes and Achievements

1. Research Clusters: Formation of five interdisciplinary research clusters focusing on themes such as "Inclusive Design for Urban Spaces", "Traditional Crafts in Contemporary Design", "Sustainable Materials and Processes", "Human-Computer Interaction in Design", and "Design for Health and Wellbeing".
2. Research Proposals: Development of 15 new research proposals by faculty members, with potential for internal funding and external grant applications.
3. Skill Enhancement: Post-event surveys indicated a 90% satisfaction rate among participants, with significant improvement reported in research methodology understanding and proposal writing skills.
4. Collaborative Projects: Initiation of three collaborative research projects between different departments within the School of Design.
5. Industry Partnerships: Establishment of two new industry partnerships for research collaborations, focusing on user experience design and sustainable product development.
6. Publication Plans: Commitment from 60% of participants to submit research papers to peer-reviewed journals within the next academic year.

Challenges and Solutions

1. Time Constraints: The intensive nature of the program was challenging for some faculty. Solution: Follow-up sessions and online resources will be provided for continued learning.
2. Diverse Skill Levels: Participants had varying levels of research experience. Solution: Implementation of a mentorship program pairing experienced researchers with early-career faculty.
3. Resource Limitations: Concerns about access to advanced research tools and databases. Solution: Plans to enhance the university's digital library and research software subscriptions.

Recommendations

1. Establish Design Research Center: Create a dedicated center to support ongoing research activities and collaborations.
2. Launch Design Journal: Initiate a peer-reviewed journal focused on design research, hosted by Sushant University.
3. Annual Research Symposium: Organize a yearly event to showcase faculty research and attract external collaborations.
4. Research Skill Workshops: Conduct regular workshops on specific research skills throughout the academic year.
5. Industry Advisory Board: Form a board of industry experts to guide research directions and ensure relevance to current design practices.
6. International Collaborations: Pursue partnerships with international design institutions for knowledge exchange and joint research projects.

Conclusion

The Research Orientation for Design program at Sushant University's School of Design has successfully laid the foundation for a robust research culture within the faculty. The event not only enhanced the research capabilities of individual faculty members but also fostered a collaborative and interdisciplinary approach to design research.

The formation of research clusters, development of new research proposals, and initiation of collaborative projects demonstrate the immediate impact of the program. The high satisfaction rate and increased confidence among participants indicate the program's effectiveness in addressing the research development needs of the faculty.

Moving forward, the implementation of the recommendations will be crucial in sustaining and building upon the momentum generated by this orientation program. With continued focus and support, the School of Design at Sushant University is well-positioned to become a leading centre for innovative design research and scholarship in India.

The success of this program marks a significant step in aligning the School of Design's research capabilities with global standards and contemporary design practices, promising exciting developments in the field of design research in the coming years.
