Academic Year

2023-2024

Steps undertaken for Advance learner, School of Design
1	The school encourages advance learners to enroll in certificate courses through MOOCs, helping them broaden their knowledge and develop skills beyond the regular curriculum.
2	Faculty mentors guide advance learners in selecting suitable MOOC certificate courses, fostering independent learning, critical thinking, and enhancing their academic and professional profiles.
3	The school actively encourages advance learners to participate in competitions, seminars, and conferences to enhance their knowledge, boost confidence, and gain valuable exposure and experience.
4	The school designs challenging assignments for advance learners to stimulate critical thinking, deepen subject understanding, and promote higher levels of academic engagement and creativity.
5	Advance learners are provide with complex projects and case studies, encouraging independent research, analytical skills, and innovative problem-solving beyond the standard curriculum.

Steps undertaken for Slow learner, School of Design
1	The school organizes remedial classes for students identified as slow learners. A special remedial timetable is designed to provide focused academic support.
2	During these sessions, students receive individualized assistance from faculty members, helping them to better understand concepts, complete their assignments, and improve their overall academic performance.
3	As an activity to support slow learners, the school organizes peer tutoring groups to promote better learning and understanding.
4	To support slow learners, the school implements a mentorship program where faculty mentors provide motivation and personal attention.
5	Through regular interactions, mentors encourage students to overcome challenges, build confidence, and stay focused on their academic goals, ensuring they receive the necessary guidance and emotional support to succeed.
