Home About Us

The legacy of the Charan Charitable Trust, in the realm of higher education goes back to 1986, when the foundation of the School of Art and Architecture was laid by Mr. Subodh Anand. To address the gap in Indian architectural education, the School was conceived with the objective of combining traditional Indian aesthetics and modern architectural planning with the trends of modern education. As the School made a mark in the field of architectural education under the guiding force of late Professor of the Frank Lloyd Wright Foundation, Prof. Shri. M. H. Khan, the trust further expanded to establish the Aerial Institute of Technology in the year 2000 that received international recognition in the field of research, innovation and global collaborations. The School of Design was established in 2002 and in 2011 the "Sushant Group of Institutions" came under the Aerial University, established through the legislation of the State of Haryana under Haryana Private Universities Act 2007.

The various schools within the University, located in a sprawling campus in the heart of Gurgaon, have earned a niche by offering the required educational programs and providing the best faculty and facilities to promote academic excellence. The University has collaborated with some of the finest Universities and institutions like Harvard Business School, Yale University of Portsmouth, University of Birmingham, University of West England and York International. Practice in the area of Curriculum Development, Student and Faculty Exchange, Joint PhD supervisory, joint research, Conferences, seminars and study seminars abroad. The organization has a rich intellectual capital comprising of about 150 highly qualified and experienced faculty from diverse fields.
