Description (min 250 to max 800 words)*

The Rotaract Club of Sushant University celebrated Rose Day under their project "Hearts of Hope" on February 7th, 2024. The initiative aimed to spread love and warmth to vendors and street children at Ghata Gaon Market by distributing roses. The event focused on offering a small yet meaningful expression of love and care to those in need within the community. The Rotaract Club members interacted with vendors and street children, sharing roses and spreading positivity. This gesture aimed to create moments of kindness and affection, fostering a sense of connection and compassion. The event was conducted responsibly, ensuring the safety and well-being of all participants. The organizers upheld the decorum and values of Sushant University throughout the celebration. The initiative successfully brought smiles and warmth to the community, embodying the spirit of the Hearts of Hope project

Description (min 250 to max 800 words)*

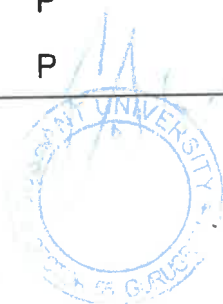

The Rotaract Club of Sushant University conducted an Interview and Awareness Campaign on Menstrual Health at Galleria. Student volunteers approached members of the public to assess their knowledge of menstrual health and provide educational information. The team utilized pre-prepared questionnaires to gather insights on common misconceptions and awareness levels. Educational pamphlets on menstrual hygiene were distributed to interested individuals. The campaign successfully engaged diverse participants, creating meaningful conversations around a traditionally taboo subject. Students reported gaining valuable experience in public communication while effectively spreading awareness about proper menstrual hygiene practices. Several participants expressed appreciation for the initiative's approach to normalizing discussions about menstrual health in public spaces.

Description (min 250 to max 800 words)*	The Rotaract Club of Sushant University organized a Menstrual Hygiene Awareness Seminar in collaboration with Dream Girl Foundation. The event focused on breaking taboos surrounding menstruation and educating students about proper hygiene practices. Expert speakers delivered presentations covering menstrual health basics and sustainable products. Students engaged in a productive Q&A session, and educational resources were distributed to attendees. The seminar successfully created an open dialogue about menstrual health on campus, providing participants with valuable knowledge about self-care during menstruation. The initiative effectively achieved its goal of promoting awareness and reducing stigma in an educational environment.

Description (min 250 to max 800 words)*	The Rotaract Club of Sushant University organized the online inauguration of "Project Neev" on January 28th, 2021, via Google Meet. The event marked the launch of two significant initiatives: Project Shiksha and Project Srishti. Mr. Ravi Kalra, Founder of the Earth Savivors Foundation, was invited as the Chief Guest to address pressing social issues and inspire the attendees to take action. The event aimed to create awareness and encourage participation in these impactful projects. Rotaract Club members played a crucial role in organizing and managing the online event, ensuring a smooth and engaging experience for all attendees. The online platform facilitated widespread participation, allowing students and faculty to attend from various locations. The event was conducted responsibly, maintaining the values of Sushant University and promoting social responsibility among the participants. The successful inauguration of Project Neev set the stage for future endeavors under Project Shiksha and Project Srishti
